

JHPO Meeting Minutes

January 16, 2019

Used Book Sale - Stacey

- April 4, 5, 6, 2019
- Books for any age range are being accepted.
- PHS is also collecting books for donation to a charity. Stacey is going to contact the teacher in charge to see if he/she will donate to us. We will then donate what does not get sold to a charity.
- Books will be categorized and priced by a volunteer.
- RHS will be performing Little Shop of Horrors here on April 11-14. Their dress/tech week will conflict with the book sale.

Teacher Grants

- We have 2 requests for books from Mr. Ferguson and Mrs. Treece.
 - Are they available through Scholastic?
 - If not, is the quote given to us the cheapest option?
- Request for 10 TI Nspire calculators at $140 ea. from Mrs. Krueger.
 - Need more info.
 - Has Mrs. Krueger applied to the Foundation?
 - Is there money in the math budget?
- Money also requested to purchase gift cards for a Shark Tank type exercise.
- If all grants are allowed we will go over budget. We will discuss this more after info obtained at the February meeting.

Frosh Fest

- We have received donations from the following groups: PHS theatre boosters, vocal music, and Perrysburg Schools Foundation.
- We are still waiting to hear from DECA, band and the parents' club.

Restaurant Night

- January 23rd is Macro's and Hershey night

Snowball

- February 22nd
- Have decorations ordered and receipts will be submitted.
- Will be getting word out to 8th graders soon, this will be only 8th graders and will be semi-formal.

- Refreshments will be water and cookies.
- Need 10 parent chaperones; we will push for these to be 8th grade parents.

Staff Breakfast

- March 15th
- Menu: Costco muffins and yogurt parfait for sure.
- Try to get Dunkin' donation.
- Avoid fresh fruit.

HIPP Dodgeball Tournament

- Miss Derr is organizing the event.
- There will be approximately 30 teams with both gyms in use.
- Last year the tournament lasted about 4 hrs.
- JHPO will run concessions.

7th Grade Boys Basketball Tournament

- JHPO running concessions and able to keep a portion of the profit.
- We still have 2 time slots unfilled.

School Beautification

- Waiting on a response from PHS to find out if any art students will be interested in painting the music hallway.
- If we ever get vinyl from the company that worked on the cafeteria and entrance, we will give them a down payment when work begins.

Teacher Appreciation

- Talked about having someone come in to do chair massages for teachers.
- Mandy will check old FPC notes to see who helped at the golf outing.
